CENTRE FOR RESEARCH IN INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT AND POLICY (CRIDP)

Centre for Research in Infrastructure Development and Policy (CRIDP) is a think tank set up in working towards the broader goal of a more efficient and equitable Public-Private Partnerships in the Indian Infrastructure sector.

The initial focus would be on aviation, road transport and power. CRIDP will be an independent body influencing public policy. It will also be involved in research and outreach to disseminate its research findings.

RESEARCH

Our team researches on policy aspects of infrastructure. Our research efforts are directed towards bettering the policy environment for the infrastructure sector. Where we find a need for specific answers in a specific sector, we take up thematic and sector specific research.

OUTREACH

As a part of our outreach, we conduct regular events, seminars, conferences and publications.

PUBLICATIONS

We publish our research on our website, in the press and also on digital/social media. Online roundtables, conferences are conducted, recorded and published.

CDPP houses the Centre for Research in Infrastructure Development and Policy (CRIDP). The specialised centre set up within CDPP works towards the broader goal of a more efficient and equitable Public-Private Partnerships in the Indian Infrastructure sector.
